Programs and Activities at Holton Career and Resource Center Now Free!

Durham Parks and Recreation Introduces New Pilot Program for City Residents

DURHAM, NC - Durham Parks and Recreation will offer a host of free programs, activities and events to City of Durham residents.

This new pilot program is designed to encourage residents to get out and recreate more.

Effective February 1, the fitness center, open gym and computer lab offered at the Holton Career and Resource Center, 401 N. Driver Street, will be free to City residents.

Beginning March 1, additional programs and activities will be available free to City residents (including youth, teen, mature adult, and families) at the Holton Career and Resource Center. Care programs, Jr. NBA and rentals are not part of this pilot program.

For information call 919-354-2750.

About Durham Parks and Recreation

Durham Parks and Recreation provides opportunities for the Durham community to “Play More.” Guided by the City’s Strategic Plan, we strive to help residents discover, explore and enjoy life through creative and challenging recreational choices that contribute to their physical, emotional and social health.
